ACC Appeal

ACC Summary

Mary May presented the case for the ACC. Their position can be summarized as follows:

- The painting scheme for the trim, brick, and garage was not in line with the general design aesthetic of the neighborhood
- The trees appeared to be neither diseased nor a health and safety concern, and as such were not in need of removal

Ruben Summary

July 11 ACC Request, letter, pictures and (other) were sent to Steve Kleough requesting the following:

- Brick treatment; german schmear;

- trim siding and stucco white.
- front door trim and shutters black;
- remove 3 trees that were dangerous based on an arborist opinion safety of neighbors and family.

The opinion was not produced, but appellant stated that he would produce the same to the board and understood that no decision would be made prior to its receipt.

Summary of 7/12 Denial:

- Delivered by Michelle Smith –
- welcome to neighborhood;
- stated a preferred trim color and style and that black not in the color palette

Same day Appellant made a request for reconsideration.

7/13, ACC affirmed their denial and delivered a copy of the Minimum Standards

Appellant cited the following houses with similar treatment –

- Black doors, black trim: 15111 Benfer ; 5115 Westerham; 15026 Benfer black door;
- White stucco: [unknown]
- painted brick: [unknown]

ACC Rebuttal:

- The work was already complete and the brick treatment was not German Schmeier
- Removal of up to 3 trees are approved
